According to german legislation and rules, the liability exclusion, signatred by each participant signing in for the event, can cover only property damage. There is therefore a theoretical possibility that a participant can sue the other for pain and suffering, etc.. The organizer art-motor has concluded a liability insurance for all participants. The costs are included in the entry fee. At all events the completion of a basic accident insurance for disability and death is possible. These include: disability insurance: If the insured has an accident due to permanent damage will be paid one year after the accident, a sum that is calculated based on the type and extent of impairment, up to 16,000 EUR. Death: If the insured is killed in an accident, here paid the following sum: 8.000 EUR. This insurance can be signed at a price of 15 € per day.
